RACIAL MATTERS

The October 30, 1961 edition of the New Haven Journal Courier, a daily morning newspaper published at New Haven, Connecticut, contains an article entitled "Local CORE to Join Route 40 Freedom Ride". According to this article, approximately fifty members of the New Haven Chapter of the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) will participate in a Freedom Ride demonstration on November 11, 1961 against restaurants located on the Baltimore-Washington Highway that refuse to serve Negroes. According to the article, more than one-thousand persons are expected to take part in this demonstration, and the CORE leaders hope the demonstration will cause the restaurant owners to intergrade voluntarily.

CONGRESS OF RACIAL EQUALITY

This article quotes Blyden Jackson, president of the New Haven Chapter of CORE, as stating that the freedom riders plan to stage "sit-ins" at many of the ninety odd segregated restaurants on the seventy-five mile stretch of highway. This article states that Jackson and other New Haven CORE leaders met on October 29, 1961 in New York City with the national officers of CORE, concerning the "Freedom Ride". It further stated in this article that William R. Moss, CORE Field Director in New Haven, Connecticut, will serve as the co-ordinator for the New Haven, Boston, and New York units participating in the "Freedom Ride".

NOTES ON RESTAURANTS ALONG HIGHWAY 40

The following is a list of about 65 restaurants, diners, luncheonettes, and truck stops along route 40 between Newark, Delaware, going south to Baltimore. This list includes about 95 percent of all eating establishments on this segment of the highway. In order to get this list, we simply rode past these establishments, took cursory observation and listed pertinent information, i.e., type of place, size and class--a, b, or c.

Because of the large number of places, we could only visit a few of them. The ones we tested are indicated so. Most of the restaurants refused us, but a few served us. Some of the restaurants we went into were very strenuous about the enforcement of their discriminatory policies. Some of the places we entered were sort of high class and their method of telling us that they didn't serve Negroes was more subtle and superficially apologetic. Only two places seemed willing to call the police immediately. Most of the places would choose to ignore you. It is interesting to note that many of these places will serve Negroes when they are with whites, but not alone or when with other Negroes.

FREEDOM RIDE
ROUTE 40
MARYLAND AND DELAWARE
NOVEMBER 11, 1961

On November 5, 1961, Lieutenant [redacted] Troop Number 2, Delaware State Police, advised the Baltimore Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation at Wilmington, Delaware, that a meeting was held on November 4, 1961, at the Mt. Zion A.M.E. Church, New London Road, Newark, Delaware, sponsored by the Newark Human Relations Council. At this meeting [redacted] Chairman, Wilmington Chapter, National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), stated that the local freedom riders would meet at 10:00 a.m. on November 11 at a parking lot next to his church, the Community Presbyterian Church, Rogers Road, New Castle, Delaware. Lieutenant [redacted] stated that at the meeting on November 4, 1961, speakers indicated that the testing of restaurants along Route 40 in Delaware would be carried out by local representatives only and that the freedom riders coming from other states would meet on the New Jersey side of the Delaware Memorial Bridge and proceed directly to the Maryland line to begin testing of restaurants on Route 40 in Maryland. Lieutenant [redacted] was unable to advise where the meeting on the New Jersey side would take place nor the time of the meeting. Other speakers emphasized that no violence was to be engaged in by the freedom riders and that they must not congregate in large groups. Their slogan would be "jail over bail." DEL.

MD-DEL Other speakers at the meeting included [redacted] and [redacted] who were recently convicted and fined for trespassing in connection with [redacted] on Route 40 near Elkton, Maryland, on September 6, 1961. In connection with that event, [redacted] and [redacted] both went on a hunger strike of approximately 17 days in the Cecil County Jail. Lieutenant [redacted] also advised that the manager of the Hollywood Diner on Route 40, New Castle, Delaware, has received a flyer of the National State Rights Party indicating that local members of this Party offered to provide observers along Route 40 whose purpose it would be to advise restaurant owners of the arrival of freedom riders in the area so that the restaurant owners could close down if they so desired and the flyer also incorporates solicitation of donations from the restaurant

A confidential informant, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised the Baltimore Office of the FBI on November 7 that according to [redacted] officer of the Congress on Racial Equality, Baltimore Branch, numerous attorneys were volunteering their services for the November 11 demonstrations on Route 40. Furthermore, attorneys from the District of Columbia would meet with attorneys from Baltimore on Thursday night, November 9 at the YWCA, 1912 Madison Avenue, Baltimore. The purpose of this meeting was to make plans for handling any requests for legal advice which might be received on November 11. According to the informant, [redacted] also has stated that CORE is making an effort to eliminate communists and any other individuals who might favor or cause violence from among the participants on the November 11 freedom ride. In connection with this, a token "screening" was held at a meeting of CORE on November 6, 1961 and that additional "screenings" would be held on the morning of November 11 before the participants would be dispatched to their specific assignments. b6 b7C

SOUTHERN CONFERENCE EDUCATIONAL FUND, INC.

"The Southern Patriot," a monthly publication, shows that it is published by the Southern Conference Educational Fund, Inc. (SCEF).

"The Southern Patriot" was cited as an "organ" of the Southern Conference for Human Welfare (SCHW) by the Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 592, on the SCHW, June 12, 1947.

The SCHW was cited as a communist front by the Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 592, June 16, 1947.

An amendment to the charter of the SCHW changed the name of that organization to the SCEF, and listed its purpose as being to improve the educational and cultural standards of the Southern people in accordance with the highest American democratic institutions, traditions, and ideals. The amendment was dated April 26, 1946.

A source, who is familiar with some phases of Communist Party (CP) activity in the New Orleans area, advised on May 15, 1961, that during the time the SCHW was in existence, CP members were members of and worked actively in the SCHW. However, since the formation of the SCEF, rank and file CP members have not been encouraged to work in the SCEF. The source stated that the SCEF is a progressive, liberal organization, which he considers a CP front organization because it has gone along with the CP on certain issues, particularly on the racial question, and through the years, certain CP members in the New Orleans area have been assigned to work in the organization to further CP principles.

On May 15, 1961, the source advised that in the past he has considered JAMES DOMBROWSKI, the Executive Director of the SCEF, to be a communist, if not an actual CP member, because he followed communist principles.

The source also advised on May 15, 1961, that many people who are officials and members of the SCEF, while liberal in their views, are by no means communists.

Another source advised on March 2, 1961, that CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT, a CP functionary, stated at a meeting of the CP in Baltimore, Maryland, on February 25, 1961, that the CP is not connected with any progressive movement, but indirectly they do have some influence in the SCEF.

By means of a suitable pretext interview of [redacted] Congress of Racial Equality (CORE), 38 Park Row, New York City, conducted on November 8, 1961, by a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, it was ascertained that on Saturday morning, November 11, 1961, at 7:30 a.m., an undertermined number of individuals will assemble at Canal Street and West Broadway, New York City, to form a caravan of cars to participate in a CORE demonstration to test restaurant facilities on Route 40 from Baltimore, Maryland to the Delaware line on the New Jersey Turnpike. N.J.

[redacted] indicated that there will be two dispatch points for people participating in this CORE demonstration. The northern dispatch point will be at the last Howard Johnson restaurant on the New Jersey Turnpike at the Delaware line, and the southern dispatch point will be located at a Baptist church located at 1627 Bolton Street, Baltimore, Maryland.

[redacted] stated that he himself will be the coordinator at the northern dispatch point and that Julius Hobson, CORE representative from Washington, D. C., will be the coordinator at the southern dispatch point. In addition, Mr. Hobson will also be in overall charge of the demonstration.

According to [redacted] the demonstrators from CORE will test facilities in approximately sixty restaurants on Route 40, with each demonstrator requested to participate in testing facilities in a maximum of four restaurants.

[] stated that the CORE demonstrators will execute the following plan in each restaurant tested: The CORE demonstrators will enter a restaurant and request service. It is expected then that the manager of the restaurant will refuse to serve the CORE demonstrators and read to them a Maryland Trespass Ordinance pointing out to the demonstrators that they are violating a state law and requesting that they depart from the restaurant. At this point, those demonstrators not willing to go to jail will leave the restaurant. The others who expect to be arrested by police officials will remain in the restaurant.

FREEDOM RIDE
ROUTE 40
MARYLAND AND DELAWARE
NOVEMBER 11, 1961

On November 8, 1961, [redacted] Radio Station WFBR, advised the Baltimore Office of the FBI that he had been informed by the Maryland Commission on Interracial Problems and Relations that 35 restaurant owners along Route 40 had stated to the Commission that they were prepared to desegregate and to serve all peoples regardless of race, color and creed. The Maryland Commission on Interracial Problems and Relations (MCIPR) had gotten in touch with Mr. JULIUS HOBSON, Eastern Representative of Congress on Racial Equality (CORE) and Mr. HOBSON stated that he would pass the information on to the National office of CORE in New York which would have to make the decision as to whether or not the freedom ride scheduled for Maryland and Delaware would be cancelled or not.

On November 8, 1961, [redacted] Community Relations Director, CORE, New York City, advised the New York Office of the FBI that the proposed freedom ride by CORE members scheduled for November 11 on Route 40 in Maryland and Delaware had been cancelled until at least December 16, 1961, on the basis of a decision reached by approximately 35 restaurant owners on Route 40 to extend their facilities to Negroes. [redacted] stated that he would contact the various CORE members and advise them of the decision to cancel demonstrations and persuade organizations who originally planned to demonstrate with CORE to cancel any proposed activity on this route. [redacted] advised, however, that there was no guarantee that members of other organizations outside of CORE would not go through with their plans to test the facilities on Route 40.

The November 9 issue of The Sun, a daily newspaper, printed in Baltimore, contains an article to the effect that members of the Civic Interest Group and others plan to hold demonstrations in Baltimore City and were dissatisfied with the decision of CORE, New York City, to cancel the freedom ride demonstration.

According to an article contained in the Baltimore Afro-American dated May 24, 1960, the Civic Interest Group is a protest organization made up predominately of students from Morgan State College in Baltimore and this group was successful in 1960 in influencing downtown Baltimore department stores and restaurants to serve all customers, both Negro and white, in their restaurants. The methods used by the group were mainly sit-down demonstrations and picketing.

On November 9, 1961, [redacted] supra, advised the Baltimore Office of the FBI that he had been notified by [redacted] of the MCIPR, that the Commission was in contact with the Civic Interest Group and that this group assured him that they would not engage in any demonstrations on Route 40 but confine any demonstrations to the City of Baltimore.

At approximately 3:30 p.m. Confidential Informant BA T-1 advised he had just received the following information from [redacted] official of the Baltimore Chapter of CORE. The local chapter of CORE will give support on November 11 to previously made plans of the Baltimore Civic Interest Group to meet at 10:00 a.m. at Cornerstone Baptist Church, Baltimore. At the church assignments will be made for restaurant sit-ins in Baltimore City and vicinity to those participating and this includes all of the individuals coming from Virginia and the District of Columbia. The newspapers have been advised of the intention to sit in at restaurants in Baltimore City but the group also planned to make surprise appearances in restaurants on Ritchie Highway, which is U. S. Route 2, from Baltimore to Annapolis. If there are enough participants, restaurants on U. S. 301 near Baltimore will also be visited.

The Baltimore News-Post, a Baltimore newspaper, dated November 9, 1961, contained an article to the effect that despite the cancellation of the "Freedom Ride" by CORE, demonstrations will take place by both sides in the Route 40 restaurant segregation question.

According to this article, members of the Civic Interest Group, composed of some seventy-five students from Baltimore colleges, said they would go ahead with anti-discrimination demonstrations on November 11, 1961.

The Maryland Petition Committee, described by this newspaper as a segregation group, said it would go ahead with plans to lead an automobile caravan along Route 40 on November 11 bearing signs proclaiming the rights of private restaurant owners to choose their customers without interference.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

According to this article, JULIUS HOBSON, supra, implored supporters of the ride to refrain from demonstrating on the highway on November 11, but he said that some groups may go through with the "Freedom Ride" despite cancellation by CORE.

This article continued that in addition to the meeting of "Freedom Ride" supporters at the Cornerstone Baptist Church, Baltimore, on November 11, 1961, two other rallies were scheduled in Baltimore at City Hall Plaza at 5:00 P. M., on November 10, 1961, and at the Governor's Mansion, Annapolis, Maryland, at 8:00 P. M., November 10, 1961.

 (OO: New York)

According to article appearing in the 11/6/61 issue of "The Cornell Daily Sun," daily student newspaper published at Cornell University, Ithaca, N.Y., nineteen Cornell students will join with several other groups in a sit-in demonstration Saturday, 11/11/61, in restaurants on U.S. Route 40 in Maryland, sponsored by CORE. Students will leave Friday or early Saturday to one of two meeting places, a Baptist church in Baltimore and a Howard Johnson Restaurant on the turnpike. Cars will meet at these two spots at 11:30 AM, when CORE representatives will send them on their assignments. Each car will hold at least two Negroes and four whites. The sit-ins will take place at four restaurants on Route 40. These restaurants have been pre-tested and have refused admittance or service to Negroes. After gaining admittance, the students plan to sit at counters or tables and request service. They expect to be refused and asked to leave, but they will remain seated.

CORE has organized two divisions in the movement, one which plans to be arrested and another, including the group from Cornell, which will leave if threatened with arrest. CORE will also sponsor "traveling courts," cars carrying lawyers and judges, in case any difficulties develop.

On 11/9/61 at 7:30 A. M., JULIUS W. HOBSON, advised WFO the Freedom Ride has been officially cancelled. He stated; however, the main concern of CORE at this time is to notify all members of the Ride that it has been cancelled. He also stated he is concerned about the fact that some small groups of students and groups not connected with CORE will test the restaurant facilities on 11/11/61. He pointed out he wishes it to be made a matter of record that if these small groups do demonstrate on 11/11/61, they do not have the authorization of CORE. He pointed out he plans to call as many group leaders to advise them to discourage any demonstration by any groups on 11/11/61. HOBSON stated he feels the decision to cancel the Freedom Ride on 11/11/61 was a wise one, and stated even though the newspapers have printed information that a Ride is scheduled in December along Rout # 40, CORE has made no plans to reschedule the Ride. He stated he feels the matter was closed amicably and for the best interest of everyone.

MEMORANDUM

TO: Chapters of the National Congress of Racial Equality

FROM: Julius W. Hobson, National Officer in the Eastern United States, and Henry Thomas, Field Secretary

SUBJECT: The Freedom Ride of November 11, 1961

1. The command posts for the Ride are located at the following points:

Civic Interest Group
1206 Etting Street
Baltimore 17, Maryland
Phone LA 3-4074

Westminster Foundation
20 Orchard Road
Newark, Delaware
Phone EN 8-3643

If anyone is arrested or if other difficulty arises, you may call either of these numbers collect. Legal help and bail will be forthcoming. We will have lawyers stationed at strategic points along the highway to answer the calls of arrested riders.

2. We suggest that close discipline be maintained at all times during the ride and that a CORE member be placed in each of the cars. The methods of CORE should be stressed. Only those who plan to stay in jail should remain in the restaurants after being asked to leave. We do not wish to have most of the riders arrested.

The command posts should be called by each leader of a group of cars to inform our National Officers of departure. We do not want to leave people out on Route 40 after the ride is over, or leave them in jail without their consent.

3. Assembly Points: We suggest that all of the chapters above Delaware assemble at the last Howard Johnson's restaurant on the New Jersey Turnpike (near the N.J. - Delaware line) by 11:30 A.M. These cars should depart from the assembly point at strategic times in order to try to arrive at the places of sit-in within a given hour. The starting time for the sit-in is 12:30 p.m.

There will be a person at the assembly points to dispatch the cars and to assign the restaurants.

The chapters from Virginia to Maryland should assemble at the Cornerstone Baptist Church located at 1627 Bolton Street, Baltimore 17, Md. The phone number is LA 3-3927. All riders should be at this point by 11:30 A.M. There will be a person at the assembly point to assign restaurants and dispatch cars.

4. Report to command posts as you depart to return home.
5. Carry enough money to pay for your own meals and to place a dime in the phone to call the command posts. It would be a good idea to have enough money to return home by bus or other public transportation.

COMMENTS

PLEASE RETURN THIS SHEET TO YOUR DISPATCHER AFTER THE RIDE

PLEASE READ CAREFULLY

It is very important that the participants on this project follow the rules and instructions concerning conduct. The success of the ride depends on this. The rules are in keeping with CORE's non-violent principles and practices governing all direct action projects. On this Freedom Ride we will be the focal point of much attention, locally, nationally, and internationally. The general public will not be as concerned with the way others will be acting so much as they will be concerned with you. One mistake and we are severely criticized. Follow the listed instructions carefully:

1. No matter what might happen to you during the course of this ride, you are not to strike back.
2. Maintain a friendly attitude toward everyone, regardless of the circumstances.
3. What you say to a person might be just as harmful as a physical blow. Watch your language in tense situations.
4. Dress---Please be as neatly dressed as possible. Men must wear coats and ties, and women, high heels, stockings, etc.
5. Please do not carry any concealed weapons or sharp instruments. Alcohol should not be found on your person or your breath.
6. You might meet with many insults. PLEASE do not answer back in the same or like manner.
7. Carry enough money to pay for your meals (approximately $6.00). If served, tip generously.
8. If you are arrested or encounter any other difficulties, call the phone number nearest to where you are. Carry a few dimes in your pocket or purse for phone calls.

MEETING

There will be a meeting at the Community Presbyterian Church
Rogers Road
Dunwoith
Wilmington, Delaware

This meeting will give all of us who took part in the Ride an opportunity to get an overall picture of what was accomplished in our initial efforts. Here we will be briefed concerning future actions, if there need be any. All the riders will have an opportunity to meet one another.

NOVEMBER 11, 1961

The November 9, 1961 edition of the New Haven Journal Courier, a daily morning newspaper published in New Haven, Connecticut, contains an article entitled "CORE Call Off Freedom Ride Into Maryland". This article states that on the evening of November 8, 1961, WILLIAM MOSS, Field Director, New Haven, Connecticut of the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) announced that the "Freedom Ride" scheduled for Saturday, November 11, 1961 on United States Route 40 in Delaware and Maryland has been canceled. According to this article MOSS stated that the regional office of CORE in New York City has announced that 35 of the restaurants along the Maryland stretch of the road had agreed to serve negroes. MOSS pointed out that the December 15, 1961 deadline has been set for the remainder of the restaurants to desegregate after which deadline CORE will "feel free to take necessary action".

On November 9, 1961, an informant who has furnished reliable information in the past advised that he was informed on the evening of November 8, 1961 by CORE headquarters in New York City that the Freedom Ride had been postponed inasmuch as 30 of the restaurants along Route 40 have agreed to integrate immediately. He stated that the Freedom Ride will be held on the weekend of December 15, 1961 in the event the remaining restaurants on Route 40 fail to integrate by that date.

FREEDOM RIDE
ROUTE 40
MARYLAND AND DELAWARE
NOVEMBER 11, 1961

The Sun, a Baltimore daily newspaper in its issue of Sunday, November 12, 1961, reflects the fact that hundreds of integrationists, most of them college students, demonstrated in Baltimore and Anne Arundel County on November 11, 1961, in an effort to call attention to the fact that various restaurants refused to serve colored people. Approximately 22 persons were arrested and charged with either trespassing or disorderly conduct in Baltimore City. Participating in the demonstrations were students from Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia, and New York. The group was apparently led by Dr. LOGAN KEARSE, Pastor of Cornerstone Baptist Church, Baltimore City. The demonstrations were marked by picketing and entrance into a restaurant and refusal to leave and sitting on the sidewalks outside of the restaurants and refusing to move on.

Lieutenant HARRY WEHNER of the Anne Arundel County Police Department at Ferndale advised that one person was arrested by his department in an attempt to integrate the Greco Steak House at Glen Burnie, Maryland.

ANTHONY W. HOWEN, Chief of the Annapolis Police Department, advised that his officers arrested five white and five colored persons attempting to integrate the Barnes Restaurant in Annapolis.

Although the Congress on Racial Equality refused to sponsor the afore-mentioned demonstrations, the Baltimore newspapers reflect the fact that JULIUS HOBSON, a Washington Eastern leader for Congress on Racial Equality (CORE), told the demonstrators at a predemonstration rally that CORE supported the demonstrations. DC MD

The Baltimore Morning Sun of November 13, 1961, reflects the statements of the Reverend W. LOGAN KEARSE that he considered the demonstrations of November 11 as being "eminently" successful. The article also reflects the fact that student and church leaders were planning another and larger demonstration

0 FREEDOM RIDERS - MISC.

It is suggested that the submission of daily airtel summaries of Freedom-Rider activities by the New Orleans Office be discontinued. In place of the daily summary, it is suggested that a weekly summary be prepared by the New Orleans Office each Monday. It has been noted that most of the court activity involving Freedom Riders takes place on Monday, including arraignments, setting of trial dates, entering of nolo contendere pleas, bond forfeitures, etc. This summary would include court activities and releases on bond and expiration of sentence for the past week. It is also suggested that this summary include only the total number arrested and total number in custody and would delete all other totals as have been previously shown on the summary form.

In the event of any new Freedom-Rider arrests or other pertinent developments the Bureau will be advised by teletype or other appropriate means.

Bureau is requested to advise as to whether the above procedure will fulfill the Bureau's needs.

APPENDIX

YOUNG SOCIALIST LEAGUE (YSL)

"The March 1, 1954, issue of the 'Young Socialist Challenge,' published as page three of 'Labor Action,' an official publication of the Independent Socialist League (ISL), contained an article concerning the creation of the YSL, which pointed out that at a unity conference occurring February 12-14, 1954, at Labor Action Hall, New York, New York, a merger occurred between the Young Peoples Socialist League (YPSL) and the Socialist Youth League (SYL). The new organization was named the YSL.

"On June 15, 1954, a confidential source made available the minutes of the YSL's National Action Committee meeting of April 13, 1954, which reflected that one S. Site-man, 'Chairman of SP (Socialist Party) Youth Committee,' had objected to a statement appearing in 'Commerce,' a New York University journal, which indicated that the YPSL merged with the SYL to form the YSL. He explained that the YPSL did not merge with anyone, that it continued to exist as the youth section of the Socialist Party. He explained that a small group of the YPSL was dropped, expelled, or suspended from that organization and joined the SYL, which he characterized as the youth group of the 'Trotskyite ISL.' He explained that after these few former members of the YPSL joined the SYL, the SYL then proceeded to change its name for its own purposes.

"On April 9, 1956, a confidential source advised as follows:

"The YSL has frequently worked in close sympathetic cooperation with the ISL toward similar objectives, although each major issue given mutual consideration is decided upon by these organizations individually. The YSL serves as an apprenticeship for the ISL, but ISL selection of members from YSL ranks is made on an individual and personal basis. In many instances YSL members are also members of the ISL. The YSL and the ISL utilize the same printing house in New York City and the YSL publication is printed as an insert in 'Labor Action.' Frequently, lecturers before the YSL are ISL members.

"The September 22, 1958, issue of 'Young Socialist Challenge,' which appeared as page five of 'Labor Action,' contained an undated statement from the National Action Committee of the YSL which indicated that the YSL had been dissolved. The statement appeared under the caption 'Join the Young Peoples Socialist League.'

"The YSL is publicly known as the youth affiliate of the Socialist Party - Social Democratic Federation."

INDEPENDENT SOCIALIST PARTY (ISP)

"The Militant" headlined its June 2, 1958, edition "Drive Opens for United Socialist Ticket in New York." Conferences were to be held at the Great Northern Hotel in New York City, June 13-15, 1958, to put a United Independent Socialist ticket on the New York ballot this Fall. This marked a renewal in a key state of a socialist tradition of challenging the two big business parties at the polls, according to "The Militant."

The "New York Post" of July 25, 1958, in an article entitled "Leftists Change Party Name to Avoid Lawsuit by Socialist" related in part:

"The United Independent Socialist Party (UISP), a coalition of leftist groups which hopes to put a state political ticket in the field this Fall, decided to change its name today.

Under threat of a suit by the old Norman Thomas socialists, the UISP will drop the 'united' and seek signatures on designating petitions simply as the ISP."

ISP Headquarters were located at 799 Broadway, New York City, according to the "New York Post."

"The Militant" is a weekly newspaper of the Socialist Workers Party.

According to two confidential sources, the ISP, Buffalo, with headquarters at 1371 Jefferson Avenue, Buffalo, was completely dominated by the leaders of the Buffalo Branch of the Socialist Workers Party as of August, 1958.

Re: Freedom Ride, Route 40, Maryland and Delaware
November 11, 1961

The Evening Sun, a Baltimore daily newspaper, in its issue of November 22, 1961, reflects the fact that the Congress of Racial Equality identified the following Route 40 restaurants as being those who had agreed to integrate by November 22, 1961. These restaurants had agreed to integrate in order to avoid a demonstration planned by the Freedom Riders for November 11, 1961. The restaurants are:

Whistle Stop, Canyasback, Bayou, Skyway, Bite Tower, Flying Clipper, Academy, Redwood, Ideal, Green Derby, Mayflower, Town House, A and P, Aberdeen, Edgewood, White Star, Drago's, Bonnie Brae, Lakeside, SNE, Williamsburg, Double T, Little Chef, Chesapeake, Swiss Inn, George's, Sam's Truck Stop, Anchor Drive-Inn, Chesapeake Steak and Seafood House, Madison House, NE Drive Inn, Gran Diner, Goot Essen, Bridge Diner, and Sorrenti Pizza.

In its issue of November 24, 1961, the Evening Sun reflects an article to the effect that the operators of four of the above restaurants denied that they had ever consented to integrate. These restaurants were listed as Mayflower, Bridge Diner, Flying Clipper and Bayou.

[redacted] spokesman for a committee of restaurant owners on Route 40, claimed that since the publication of the list by the Congress of Racial Equality, he had received telephone calls from two of the restaurant owners that they had changed their minds about desegregating and that he expected more of such calls. He explained that the list contained some conditional acceptances of desegregation.

ENCLOSURE

Mr. Julius Hobson, of the Washington office of the Congress of Racial Equality, announced that massive "freedom rides" would be ordered if it was found that a substantial number of restaurants on the list were still refusing service to Negroes and that testing along Route 40 would begin by November 24, 1961. Mr. Hobson stated the Congress of Racial Equality intended to meet with the Maryland State Commission on Inter-racial Problems and Relations, and also to consider a bill to be presented to the Maryland Legislature in an attempt to end segregation and discrimination in public places in Maryland. In discussing "massive freedom rides", Hobson indicated that as many as 3000 demonstrators would be used along Route 40.

at various places in Las Cruces on the stationery of the

he was to be able to take advantage of a study made by the wording "official ammunition and gun shop. Some of our

This letter was signed [redacted]

The letter did not specify what date any group would be arriving in Las Cruces and gave no further plans.

[redacted] was contacted in this matter and stated he knew nothing concerning any contemplated plans.

Chief C. L. Rogers of the Las Cruces Police Department stated that later letters were received of a similar type without the wording in reference to firearms at the Walgreen Drug Store, the Office of the Mayor, Las instructing that a bonfire and rally would be held in town and that these public officials would be expected to attend.

No dates were given of any contemplated rallies.

Investigation at Los Angeles, California, revealed that there is no such address in Los Angeles as 1313 LaBrea, either north or south. None of the numerous National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) chapters in the Los Angeles area are located on any street named LaBrea.

A review of street guides for Chicago, Illinois, made by Special Agent [redacted] on October 30, 1961, determined that there is no La Guardia Road listed for Chicago, Illinois.

On October 31, 1961, a confidential source in Chicago, who has a wide knowledge of the Chicago branch of the NAACP (as well as other Negro organizations in Chicago) advised that the NAACP Headquarters in Chicago was never located at 709 West LaGuardia Road or any conceivable variation of this address. The source stated that he had never heard of the name [redacted] mentioned with regard to NAACP or any other Negro organization in Chicago and he had no knowledge of a Freedom Riders tour through Las Cruces, New Mexico. b6 b7C

Chief of Police C. L. Rogers, Las Cruces Police Department on November 13, 1961, advised Special Agent [redacted] [redacted] he had located no additional information pertaining to the origin of the above-mentioned letters, that there was no indication of any planned action or demonstrations of any kind in this area other than the original letters and that from information now available he feels that the letters were possibly prepared by someone other than the NAACP and might possibly be intended more as a prank than anything else. He planned no further action with respect to the reference to guns in the letter to [redacted]

Carter Rules 'Riders' Guilty; Appeals Filed

A state judge has convicted 11 'freedom riders' who ventured here less than a week after another group touched off rioting, bloodshed and martial law last May.

Circuit Judge Eugene Carter ordered $100 fines and 30-day jail terms Monday for the four white ministers and seven Negroes, including Yale University Chaplain William A. Coffin Jr.

The verdict capped a daylong trial, during which the Rev. Mr. Coffin testified he talked with an assistant to U.S. Atty. Gen. Robert Kennedy before launching the challenge of local bus depot segregation.

Their state court conviction came on appeal of conviction in county court.

APPEAL NOTICE FILED

All 11 filed notice of appeal to the Alabama Court of Appeals. They were released on $750 bond each.

Carter, who tried the cases simultaneously without a jury, since none was requested, convicted 10 of the defendants on unlawful assembly and breach of the peace charges. The Rev. Wyatt Tee Walker of Atlanta, was convicted only of unlawful assembly, but the Negro leader drew the same penalty as the others.

The group was arrested when all except Walker sat at a lunch counter in the Trailways Terminal.

TELS OF PHONE CALL

Coffin, son-in-law of famed pianist Artur Rubinstein, testified that Burke Marshall, an assistant attorney general, telephoned him at Yale before he and the others came here.

The Presbyterian minister, a member of the President's National Advisory Council on the Peace Corps, was asked if Marshall encouraged the trip. He replied:

"Mr. Marshall said he was not intending to interfere but that he wanted us to give this decision (freedom ride) very serious consideration."

TALKED TO KING

The Yale chaplain also testified that he telephoned the Rev. Martin Luther King Jr., Atlanta Negro integration strategist, before he left the campus at New Haven, Conn.

Coffin said that the group's legal fees "very likely will be paid mostly by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People."

Later he amended that to say he meant the NAACP legal defense fund.

The state's case was built on the argument that the arrests were made to prevent further rioting.

Defense attorneys argued that the arrests were unjustified, contending the crowd was not large and posed no threat.

THOSE ARRESTED

White ministers arrested were Coffin, The Rev. Gaylord B. Noyce, assistant professor of religion at Yale, Dr. David E. Swift, religion professor at Wesleyan University, Middletown, Conn., and Dr. John D. Macguire, assistant professor of religion at Wesleyan.

Negro defendants were Walker, The Rev. Ralph D. Abernathy of Atlanta, a former Montgomery integration leader; the Rev. F. L. Shuttlesworth of Birmingham; Bernard Lee of Atlanta; George Smith, a Yale student, and Clyde Carter and Joseph Jones, both students at Johnson Smith College at Charlotte, N. C.

Their state court penalties of $100 fine and 30 days in jail compared with county court sentences last Sept. 16 of 90 days in jail for Walker, $100 fines and 10-day terms for Abernathy and Lee, and fines of $100 and 15 days in jail for the other eight.

I attended a meeting at 8751 Grand River in Detroit on November 5, 1961. There were 8 women present, 2 of them Negro, and 7 men were present, 2 of them Negro. The meeting started at 7:10 and ended at 9:00.

[redacted] read the minutes from the last meeting and then gave a report on his CORE activities.

[redacted] was back from New York and said that while he was there, he learned that CORE is sponsoring another Freedom Ride on Highway 40. [redacted] a member of News and Letters is going to be on that ride. She was one of the Negroes arrested on the Freedom Rides in Mississippi. He also mentions the CORE organization in New York. He said that they don't have membership blanks there. If you want to join CORE, you just go to their meetings and participate in whatever they are doing and if they like you and what you do, they accept you as a member.

There was a delay in the meeting last night while someone was looking for a paper that was to be read, and Olga said, "does anyone know any songs, lets get some spirit in the group" and everyone started to laugh. Then [redacted] said, "For those of you who don't get the joke, one of our old members by the name of Grace who is now with the Correspondence and making agitating remarks about us, was always ready to start everyone singing.

[redacted] read a letter from Raya and she said that News and letters in New Haven has a new student member by the name of [redacted] She said the day of her first talk at Yale was also the day that the Russians set off their first megaton bomb. She said that after her talk, she expected everyone would be full of questions about the bomb, but no one even mentioned it. Instead, all the students wanted to know how they could find out more about News and Letters, ~~and where they could find out more~~ This had her puzzled, so she asked [redacted] why no one asked about the bomb and all the fall-out. He said that all the students got together and decided that it was so terrible they didn't want to hear anything more about it. They wanted to know about News and Letters so they could help bring about the new society she talked about, so they could fight back at the world situation instead of hearing all the terrible things that are happening every day.

[redacted] talked about the Plenum booklet and also about the 50 megaton bomb that has exploded. She had all the latest newspaper headlines to back her up, and then she discussed Naxons' statement on Krushev and the bomb. She said that his statement that Krushev is not a madman, but a calm, calculated man showed that he (Nixon) is also a madman. She said that his statement, if I had been elected Pres. I would have started Nuclear testing a month after the election, showed just how mad he really is. She said that for that reason alone, she was glad that he was not elected, even though Kennedy is not much better.

BEHALF OF EQUAL ACCOMMODATIONS IN RESTAURANTS IN MARYLAND

On November 25, 1961, [redacted] Anne Arundel County Jail, Annapolis, Maryland, advised the Baltimore Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation that seven of the persons incarcerated in the Anne Arundel County Jail for Trespassing and Disorderly Conduct charges on November 18, 1961, were released on bail of $250.00 each on November 25, 1961. b6 b7C

On November 27, 1961, [redacted] advised that two of the remaining three persons lodged in the County Jail had made bond under the same terms and were released on November 27, 1961, leaving [redacted] in jail. [redacted] advised that [redacted] is no longer on a hunger strike but refuses to make bond.

On November 25, 1961, Captain [redacted] Annapolis Police Department, advised that the approximate 20 to 30 persons picketing the Governor's mansion at Annapolis, still continue their activity, and the purpose of the picketing is to protest alleged discrimination in service in Maryland restaurants and in behalf of an Equal Accommodations Bill in Maryland.

On November 26, 1961, Captain [redacted] advised that as of 2:30 PM that day the picketing had ceased and the pickets had left the City of Annapolis. He identified the following individuals as pickets who had been identified as students from New York University.

RE: FREEDOM RIDE
MARYLAND AND DELAWARE

On November 25, 1961, Sergeant [redacted] Maryland State Police, North East, Maryland, advised the Baltimore Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, that one group of Freedom Riders appeared at the New Bridge Diner, Havre de Grace, Maryland; two groups appeared at the Bar H Chuckhouse, North East, Maryland; and one group appeared at Rosie's Diner, Elkton, Maryland, requesting service. All were refused, and they left without incident after the Maryland State Law on Trespass was read to them. The visits occurred on November 25, 1961.

On November 27, 1961, Inspector [redacted] of the Baltimore County Police Department, advised the Baltimore Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation that over the weekend of November 25, 1961, groups of Freedom Riders from New York tested some of the restaurants on Route 40 that had previously agreed to serve Negroes. The results of the tests were that of approximately 19 such restaurants so tested. 16 served the Negroes and 3 refused them service. Inspector [redacted] did not have any specific information as to the identification of the restaurants. On the same day the same group also requested service in 14 other restaurants, and they were denied service in 10 of the restaurants. Inspector [redacted] had no information concerning the identity of these restaurants.

The November 27, 1961 issue of the Baltimore News Post, a daily newspaper printed in Baltimore, reflects the statements of MR JULIUS HOBSON, Eastern Representative of the Congress on Racial Equality (CORE), that the previous testing of Route 40 by New York representatives of CORE confused the situation. He advised that his CORE chapter located in Washington, D. C. had not participated in the testing but that they would do so in the future. It would appear from the article that MR. HOBSON felt that the actions of CORE, in testing both restaurants that had promised to desegregate and other restaurants which had not committed themselves to a policy of desegregation, had confused the situation.

ENCLOSURE

The November 29th issue of the Sun, a daily newspaper printed in Baltimore, reflects the statement of Governor J. MILLARD TAWES of Maryland, that he would support a bill banning discrimination in hotels and restaurants, which bill had been previously introduced by the Maryland Legislative Council. The Bill, briefly, makes it a crime to deny service to a customer at a restaurant or hotel because of his race, religion or national origin. CORE has already objected to the Bill on the grounds that it is not strong enough inasmuch as it exempts refreshment stands in amusement parks and provides for a confidential investigation by the States Attorney before any complaint can be referred for prosecution.

The November 30th issue of the Sun reflects the announcement by CORE in New York that a Freedom Ride is scheduled for Route 40 between Wilmington, Delaware and Baltimore City for December 16, 1961. According to the announcement, approximately 70 restaurants and taverns will be visited. The announcement also makes reference to a December 4th meeting of CORE in New York to work out the plans for the December 16th visit to Delaware and Maryland.

A confidential source, who has given reliable information in the past, advised on November 30, 1961, that CORE in Baltimore will cooperate with CORE in New York, in the execution of the Freedom Ride scheduled for December 16, 1961.

FREEDOM RIDE
ROUTE 40
MARYLAND AND DELAWARE
NOVEMBER 11, 1961

[redacted] Anne Arundel County Jail, Annapolis, Maryland, advised the Baltimore Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, that of the thirteen persons arrested for trespassing in connection with the desegregation of Annapolis restaurants on November 18, 1961, ten are awaiting trial in the Anne Arundel County Jail. These ten have refused to post bond and immediately went on a hunger strike. The regular meals of the institution were offered to them and refused. This condition continued until November 23, 1961, when [redacted] and [redacted] were the only individuals still fasting. At 6:00 p.m., on November 23, 1961, [redacted] and [redacted] ate a full meal and have been eating steadily since and as of 1:45 p.m., November 24, 1961, [redacted] took a regular meal and indicated that he would no longer continue his hunger strike. b6
b7C

[redacted] advised that starting at 2:00 p.m. on November 23, 1961, approximately twenty individuals have picketed the Governor's Mansion at Annapolis, Maryland in protest against the failure of Annapolis restaurants to serve Negroes. They have indicated to [redacted] that they intend to continue their picketing for three days and three nights. The twenty individuals are made up of two thirds white and one third Negro and all claim to be on a hunger fast as a mark of their protest. Their signs that they are carrying read "Let's Make Maryland Free," "We Hunger For Freedom," "Do Not Eat In Segregated Facilities," and "Make Public Accommodations Possible, End Segregation."

[redacted] advised that although twenty individuals composed the group, they do not all picket at one time, but seemed to be divided into three equal shifts of eight hours each.

"The Sun", a daily newspaper, printed in Baltimore, Maryland, in its issue of November 24, 1961, reflects the statement of Walter Carter, Chairman of the Maryland Chapter of the Congress of Racial Equality that the number of pickets will grow to at least fifty by November 24, 1961, when the demonstration will end.

New Haven Freedom Rider Relates Dramatic Trip, Jailing In Mississippi

Editor's note: The following is a written account of a New Haven freedom rider's trip by bus to Jackson, Miss. The writer is Raymond B. Randolph Jr., whose parents live at 117-A Brookside Ave. A 1958 graduate of Hillhouse High School, he recently finished his junior year at Virginia Union University in Richmond, Va., where he is majoring in foreign languages. On June 8, he began serving a 60-day sentence in the Jackson Jail and this outline of his experiences was received as a letter to the editor of The Register.

This is an account of my trip to Jackson, Miss.:

I was accompanied by two fellow students from Virginia Union University, Reginald M. Green of Washington, D.C., and Obadiah Simms of Pittsburgh, Pa. Before leaving Richmond, Va., we were approached by reporters and continuously watched by a tall, white man with a newspaper in his hand, whom we found out later to be an agent from the FBI.

We left Richmond at 12:01 a.m. Monday, June 5, for Raleigh, N.C. There we ate without any trouble. Our next stop was Salisbury, N.C. We arrived at 6:35 a.m. Tuesday.

We went directly to the waiting room marked "White." The white people looked at us as though we were from another world. We went to the rest room and afterward, to the dining room to have breakfast. After about 20 minutes of discussion a white waitress asked for our order.

At that time a policeman en-

tered the waiting room, looked in our direction and went over and talked to the white customers. The white waitress smiled to the compliment of R. M. Green as to the fine taste of the food.

Everything was going along fine. Our bus arrived at 7:45 a.m. We boarded it and left for Ashville, N.C. We arrived there at 12:10 p.m. Again we went directly to the white waiting room. We used the restroom and then we went to the dining room. After some time we were waited on by a white waitress.

12:30 p.m. We were approached by a tall, white man whom we found later to be the manager's son. He asked us where we were coming from. We told him. Then he asked to see our interstate bus tickets. We showed them to him and he left.

12:45 p.m. We left for Knoxville, Tenn. We arrived there at 5:01 p.m. The dining room appeared to be integrated. We had a most enjoyable dinner. A white girl (about 19 or 20) who boarded the bus in Salisbury, N. C., in her facial expression became quite friendly with R. M. Green. I guess it was apparent to her what we were doing. Although her mother did not seem to approve of it, the girl had a short conversation with Green. She left us in Knoxville, Tenn., after 15 hours of travel.

Go To Nashville

At 5:01 p.m. we left for Nashville, Tenn., due to arrive there at 9:45 p.m. The trip up to this point was quite favorable. Knowing what our objectives were, the people seemed to be glad to get rid of us because in a matter of hours they knew that we would be behind bars. At all times we made it a point to sit at the front of the bus.

We arrived in Nashville, Tenn., at 9:45 p.m., where we were greeted by three more freedom riders: Carol Silver (white) a graduate of Columbia U.; John Garg (white), a student at Yale Divinity School, and Edward Kale (white), also from Yale Divinity School, who arrived at 10:30 p.m. from Connecticut by train.

We then checked our bags and went to the dining room which had been integrated during the sit-in movements. After this, Carol suggested that we tour the city. This we did without incident. A man from the FBI walked by several times as if he were waiting for a bus.

Wednesday June 7, 1:30 a.m.

We boarded the bus and arrived in Memphis, Tenn., at 6:20 a.m. As I looked out the window, I noticed the bus driver. He seemed to nod his head to two men who were sitting inside the bus terminal.

From that time on, they watched our every move. We then went into the dining room where we waited for some time. We were then waited on by a Negro waitress who asked to see our interstate bus tickets.

She told us she was not supposed to wait on us but did so anyway. Behind the counter we saw a sign that read, "We reserve the right to refuse any one."

Were Observed

While we were eating our breakfast the men who were following us looked through the window to see what we were doing. We finished breakfast at 7:17 a.m. We then went to the waiting room to wait for our bus. We were followed by the two men. The white people seemed to be quite puzzled as to why we were sitting in their seats. The older white women preferred to stand rather than sit next to us.

At 7:35 a.m. we boarded the bus for Jackson, Miss. Every couple of miles we noticed a patrol car parked at the side of the road. Our first stop was Winona, Miss., in which we ran into a little difficulty. The white people who were waiting for us at the station began to argue with Ed Kale and myself as to the reason for making the trip.

One white boy, about 19 or 20 years of age, said that we should put a stop to these riders because this is just what Khrushchev wants for propaganda in Russia. A white adult reached out and hit Ed when he tried to explain that we should love our fellow man.

After about 15 minutes, we left Canton, Miss., where another crowd was waiting. We did not get off the bus. At 1:00 p.m. we arrived at the Jackson, Miss., terminal.

At Jackson Later

We were arrested 30 seconds later.

The bus station was encircled by what seemed to be most of the Jackson police. People were hanging out the windows of the nearby hotels. It seemed the total white population was there to see us as we were arrested.

Green, Simms and myself entered the white waiting room and Carol Silver, Gager and Kale entered the colored waiting room. When we entered the room the captain of the police followed us in and then said, "Now you all boys gotta move on now."

"All right," he said, "You're under arrest."

The patrol wagon was already waiting for us outside the terminal. The only integration of the original group was in the patrol wagon.

We were taken to police station, questioned, stripped of our belongings and fingerprinted. Our pictures were taken with a number around our necks. Later we were taken to our cells, Negroes on one floor, whites on another.

We were tried on Thursday, June 8, at 3 p.m. and given a sentence of four months, two months suspended, and a $200 fine. The charge: breach of peace. The time to be served in the Hinds County Jail, Jackson, Miss.

An article appeared in the "Nashville Tennessean," a daily newspaper, published at Nashville, Tennessee, on September 28, 1961, in which it was related that ten persons who had played major roles in the Alabama "freedom rides" were awarded $500.00 scholarships on the night of September 27, 1961. The group was composed of students or former students of Nashville colleges, including three persons who had been expelled from Tennessee A&I State University after their participation in the Mississippi "freedom rides." According to the article, funds for the scholarships were supplied jointly by the Southern Christian Leadership Conference and the American Baptist Convention. The awards were made by Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., of Atlanta, Georgia, the Southern Christian Leadership Conference President, who was in Nashville, Tennessee, for a three-day Southern Christian Leadership Conference meeting.

DETAILS: AT JACKSON, MISSISSIPPI

On October 3, 1961, City Prosecuting Attorney J. A. TRAVIS, JR., City of Jackson, advised SA [redacted] that [redacted] was tried in Hinds County Court, Jackson, on October 3, 1961, and convicted on a Breach of the Peace charge. He said [redacted] was sentenced to serve four months in jail and pay a fine of $200. According to TRAVIS, [redacted] was released on the same date upon posting a $1000 cash appeal bond plus a $500 cash cost bond both returnable in Hinds County, Jackson, Mississippi.

On October 23, 1961, [redacted] Deputy, Hinds County Circuit Clerk's Office, advised SA [redacted] that on that day [redacted] was tried in Hinds County Court, after entering a plea of not guilty to a Breach of the Peace charge. She was convicted and sentenced the same date to four months in jail and fined $200. She was released the same date after posting a $1,000 cash appeal bond plus a $500 cash cost bond, returnable in Hinds County Circuit Court.

On October 9, 1961, [redacted] Deputy, Hinds County Circuit Clerk's Office, advised SA [redacted] that on October 9, 1961, Attorney [redacted] appeared in Hinds County Court, Jackson, Mississippi, representing [redacted] who was not present. [redacted] withdrew a previous not guilty plea entered by [redacted] and entered a plea of nolo contendere to a Breach of the Peace charge on behalf of his client. The court then adjudged [redacted] to be guilty and imposed a sentence of four months in jail suspended and a $200 fine, which was paid by Attorney [redacted] on behalf of his client.

b7C

On November 27, 1961, Captain [redacted] Police Department, advised that on November 16, 1961, Attorney [redacted] representing [redacted] appeared in Hinds County Court, Jackson, and withdrew a previously entered not guilty plea to a Breach of the Peace charge. He entered a plea of nolo contendere to this charge on [redacted] behalf. [redacted] was not present in court. On the same date, [redacted] was adjudged guilty and sentenced to four months in jail suspended and fined $200. [redacted] paid the $200 fine in behalf of his client.

On November 9, 1961, Assistant City Prosecuting Attorney [redacted] City of Jackson, advised that, due to the extremely heavy docket in Hinds County Court, the court reporters are far behind in transcribing the records of Freedom Rider trials. Until these records are transcribed, the Hinds County Circuit Court cannot rule on the appeals to it from the Hinds County Court in these cases. [redacted] stated there is no way of knowing when the Hinds County Circuit Court will handle these appeals, as this is a matter for the court; however, he indicated that it would probably not be until at least 1962.
